Dear Friends and Fellow Theologians,

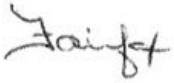
Does it startle you to know that we all are theologians? We all are theologians because we all are called to consider how we know and understand God: the Creator God who forms us, the Savior who redeems us, and the Spirit who accompanies us each day. Our thoughts and ideas as theologians are shaped by what we know about God from the Holy Scriptures, the teachings of the church down through time, and our personal perspectives and experiences. We work out our theologies in dialogue with who we know God to be from the scriptural record and in concert with other believers. Although we rarely acknowledge it, virtually every question — at its core — is a theological question. If we consider things that way, we allow our faith — and the teachings of Jesus — to influence the choices we make. Our shared theology as a congregation informs who we are, the tone of our worship, how we greet newcomers, the mission we engage in, and every other facet of our lives together.

The better we know God — God's grace and love, the history of God's dealings with human beings, the examples we see in Jesus' life — the better able we are to think theologically, to think in ways that allow us to be guided by God's hopes for us and to act in ways that reflect the image of God in which we are made. In a recent article for the Foundation for Reformed Theology, Tom Currie (Jim's brother) writes, "Ultimately… theology is about learning to praise… Good theology is always doxology, teaching us to praise, and teaching us what is worthy of praise, so that in this life and in the life to come, we will be able to offer our praise to the One who has … called us into his life and love."

A key purpose for the Church is to provide opportunities for us all to praise God and practice thinking theologically, to practice thinking about how Jesus would respond to particular circumstances and people. Such thinking initially slows our responses, a good thing! Eventually, as we become more and more steeped in the life Jesus models for us, genuinely Christian responses become automatic. They become integral to who we are. We grow in grace. Our lives take on a consistent faithfulness. God's love is seen through us.

Friends and Fellow Theologians, take the time to think theologically. Allow Christ to be in you and to shine through you!

Grace and peace,



The Rev. Dr. Fairfax F. Fair, pastor

Clerk's Corner April 2022

Submitted by Bonnie Keith, Clerk of Session

The Session of First Presbyterian, May 16, 2022, at 6:45 p.m. for the first in person meeting since February 2020.

The following reports were given.

- The current total active membership as of May 16, 2022 is 194.
  - Karen Taylor joined by transfer of letter from First Baptist Church Pasadena.
  - Dolores Thacker joined by transfer of letter from First Presbyterian Church of Houston.
  - Granville Sydnor died April 30, 2022.
  - Joe Taylor died May 4, 2022.
- Roy Kreitz reported that we are more or less breaking even on the budget. Last month the quarterly insurance payment was made, so expenses exceeded income, but for the year we are in the black by about $1800. Since we are doing programming in the building again, expenses may increase, so we will need more revenue.
- Taco and a Prayer was successful. Sixteen volunteers worked and around 70 bags were passed out. Some of the encounters with guests were quite moving.
- Donna Gilchrest reported on plans for Vacation Bible School on June 6 to 9.
- Barbara has added a weekly calendar to the back of the bulletin and Bonnie will link it to the front page of the website. Part of the intent is to show what is happening in a given week and any schedule changes, and also to alert members when Fellowship Hall is being rented, so members will know not to enter. The rentals help the church budget.
- Dr. Fair is taking a vacation Sunday on July 10. Session approved having Greg Han preach that Sunday.

PENTECOST
SPECIAL OFFERINGS
CHILDREN AT RISK • YOUTH • YOUNG ADULTS

On June 5th we will be receiving the Pentecost Offering, which is a church-wide effort to support young people and inspire them to share their faith, ideas, and unique gifts with the church and the world. Our gifts to the Pentecost Offering connect with God's hope and future, supporting ministries with children, youth and young adults by building a life of faith. Through the Young Adult Volunteer program, Presbyterian Youth and Triennium, the "Educate a Child, Transform the World" initiative, we join in ministries that connect young people with one another and with caring communities, helping them shape a life and a future beyond even the one we could plan.

We have seen the results of this offering in action. Our own Shane Webb was called and ordained by our church, as he participated in the Young Adult Volunteer program in Peru. Chrissi Ellis, Darcy McPhail, and Chere Wharry attended Triennium in the summer of 2019. Forty percent of what is received stays locally, and in the past, the Mission and Outreach Ministry has designated this for Covenant House Texas, which ministers to homeless, abused, and abandoned youth ages 18 to 24 in Houston.

Please give generously because, when we all do a little, it adds up to a lot.

THE NEWS FROM

TACO AND A PRAYER

MAY 11, 2022

It was actually a joyous occasion at the FPC kitchen and drive through on that early Wednesday morning—from 4:15 am (for 2 of us non-sleepers!) to 9:30 am (for the last to leave!). And, yes, just a little bit tired!

There were 16 of us who cooked, filled and wrapped tacos, stuffed the 100 bags with 2 tacos each and FPC information, delivered the bags and prayed with the carloads, put up signs on the street, waved large eye-catching signs at the car traffic, and, of course, cleaned up and scrubbed pots in the kitchen.

Also, there were several volunteers who helped with the flyers and publicity at Memorial High School, Turner Elementary, Teague Elementary, and Tegeler School.

Hugs and thanks to all these wonderful servants of our Lord!!

The Mission and Outreach Ministry really appreciates your good help...and we look forward to May 2023.

Young at Heart met on third Thursday, May 19, 2022. We were happy to welcome new member Anne Canavier, a spry Centenarian. She was the guest of Heather Jamison. Also, the DeLoach's joined us for the first time! Welcome Joyce and Garland! We were missing two very important members of YAH, Marvin and Sue. Sue is home ill with Covid and Marvin is caring for her. We prayed for Sue and all those who are ill or in any distress.

We pray for our world and all of God's children.

We also thank Him for bringing us together to enjoy Christian fellowship.

It was brought to my attention that I was derelict in not posting our annual high school graduate Scholarship award. That is being taken care of now.

Also attending for the first time and a very welcome addition was Imelda Carrillo. So happy you joined us.

Also back after an absence was Jeannie Stephens who tutored a new group of Chickenfoot players.

We enjoyed a light lunch of an assortment of Hoagies and fresh fruit and dessert.

Our guest Anne was up to the task of playing Hand and Foot and there were two tables of Hand and Foot.

Donations were made to go to our Scholarship fund and for lunch.

We will continue to make donations for both.

It was a lot of fun and we can do it again next month on third Thursday, June 16th at 10:00.

BAYWOOD CROSSING
REHABILITATION & HEALTHCARE CENTER

The residents of Baywood Crossing Nursing Home are so grateful to FPC for providing two persons to lead a brief time of Praise and Worship each Wednesday morning, 10:00 - 10:30.

There is great joy, also, for our faithful leaders who serve once or twice a month–Imelda Carrillo, Rev. Dr. Fairfax Fair, Ruth Askine, and our talented piano player, Sharon Odum. We are delighted to provide this meaningful ministry to our good friends at Baywood Crossing RHC!

Thank you and bless you for giving your soles away to needed souls. All clothing items bless PCM but shoes and possibly socks truly help our clients. Our clients have taken home over the 300 pair mark since our "Soles for Souls Campaign" began, even some size 14 shoes. (Yes, somebody's feet at FPC are that size.) As long as Pasadena Community Ministries has "souls" at our door more shoes and clothing will be needed. Continue donating to the blue bins.

Pasadena Community Ministries is always in need of food. If you would like to make a monetary donation, please mail or drop in the secure box at church a check made out to First Presbyterian Church with the designation PCM. You may also donate at fpcpasadena.org under Donate, Please follow up with an email to kimberly@fpcpasadena.org so she can direct the donation to PCM.

Brunch & Book Group Afterglow

Good friends (and bookworms!),

Dee Lowery was our awesome leader for a wonderful discussion about One Thousand White Women on Saturday, May 21, in the Fellowship Hall. Some of our group even admitted that they thought the whole dramatic and tragic story was REAL!! However, it was based on one small true incident with the Cheyenne chief in 1875. Jim Fergus did create quite a story of life for the white (and one Black) women with the Cheyenne Indians in the American West. Our big question was how to define "civilized".

The Summer Day

Who made the world?
Who made the swan, and the black bear?
Who made the grasshopper?
This grasshopper, I mean-
the one who has flung herself out of the grass,
the one who is eating sugar out of my hand,
who is moving her jaws back and forth instead of up and down-
who is gazing around with her enormous and complicated eyes.
Now she lifts her pale forearms and thoroughly washes her face.
Now she snaps her wings open, and floats away.
I don't know exactly what a prayer is.
I do know how to pay attention, how to fall down into the grass, how to kneel down in the grass,
how to be idle and blessed, how to stroll through the fields,
which is what I have been doing all day.
Tell me, what else should I have done?
Doesn't everything die at last, and too soon?
Tell me, what is it you plan to do with your one wild and precious life?
—Mary Oliver

FPC CLUSTER SHEPHERD GROUPS & CO-SHEPHERDS 2022

The FPC Cluster shepherd groups are linked together so members will find themselves in only one group. The emphasis is on the group itself, with two caring and connecting church officers as support.

The Deacons and Elders each have distinct roles, the officers will work in harmony as co-shepherds to help build relationships within the group. The primary call of a Deacon is one of pastoral care, while the Elder's primary call is to govern and communicate current happenings in the life of the church, including deaths. Both are called to stay in touch with their flock. As Christians, we are all called to be the presence of Christ for one another.

The co-shepherds are from the same class. That way they will serve as partners for their entire term of service.

Below are the cluster partners, reflecting the new officer shepherds. A bulletin board in the hallway visually reflects the arrangement.
