Dear Friends,

Yesterday we celebrated the resurrection of Jesus Christ, God's victory over sin and death and the basis of our faith. We are Easter people. What does that mean? It means death does not have the final say, that God has a future plan for us that exceeds our imagination, that the time is surely coming when we will be united in perfect communion with our living Lord and with those we have loved. As Martin Luther says in his beloved Reformation hymn, "And though this world, with devils filled, should threaten to undo us," God has the final word and the final word is one of joy and hope.

We do not yet see the end of troubles and travails or of death and destruction. We know trials personally and we know them as a society and as global citizens. It would be easy to give in to despair, to allow worries and concerns to overwhelm us. But God in Jesus Christ offers us an alternative of grace. God in Jesus Christ offers us an alternative of peace. Jesus Christ's resurrection is the good news of the Gospel and it is good news for us all.

Friends, I encourage you to bask in the glow of the bright light of Easter, the light which greeted the women when they discovered Jesus' empty tomb. Allow this light to illumine your path. Allow this light to brighten your every darkness. Lean into it. Depend on it. Jesus Christ is risen! God will never let us down. Thanks be to God! Alleluia! Amen.

Grace and peace,

Rev. Dr. Fairfax F. Fair, pastor

Young at Heart meets Thursday, April 18 at 10 am in the Fellowship Hall.

Sandwiches will be provided; bring a dessert if you wish. Come join this fun-loving group for fellowship, games, and lunch.

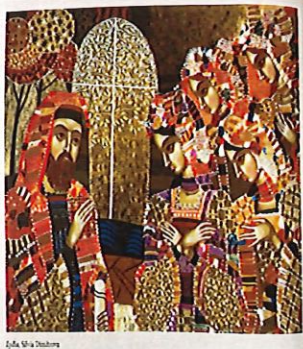

Neither rain, nor sleet, nor snow can keep the YAH faithful from their appointed rounds of Chickenfoot, Hand and Foot. For our March meeting, Ruth (the faithful) met me at the door. All together ten folks came in out of the rain (no one melted) and we had a lovely time. The devotional was about all the turmoil in the world and how the answer starts in our own hearts. I tried to get everyone to sing Happy Birthday to Jean Johnston, but she kept insisting it wasn't her birthday until April. I guess she would know. So we dispersed to our favorite game tables and the bantering and fun began. Sorry, not sure who won Chickenfoot. But despite the accusations of Marvin and Bud, I know for a fact, Elois and her favorite partner won Hand and Foot! Then Betsy Marlow ordered pizza for us. Thank you, Betsy. The pizza was delicious, and the delivery person was blessed beyond his wildest dreams! (You may thank Nancy). Betty Pendleton brought a delicious Key Lime pie and Elois made the yummy Brownies. Thanks to everyone for a fun-filled rainy day!

Next month, we will celebrate Jean's birthday again on third Thursday. It's always more fun when YOU are there.

Love, Joan

"And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment."
Philippians 1:9

Presbyterian Women meets Tuesday, April 9 in the Fellowship Hall for our eighth lesson: "Lydia Encounters Jesus in Worship" from the Bible study book Sacred Encounters by Olive Mahabir. Carolyn Stratton and Elois Murray will host. Night Circle meets at 6:30 pm with Imelda Carrillo presenting the lesson and Lou Anne Sinor hosting. Please join us at either meeting. Bonnie Keith will provide Zoom login information via email before each meeting. If you are interested in joining a circle, please contact Bonnie Keith or Melba Slaven.

CROSSES ON THE CORNER is coming to an end. Many thanks to Liz Reed for coordinating this effort since 2013. This was the last year they will be on display, so if you would like to keep yours, it will be in the storage shed behind the church.
